

Request Submission Sequence

The durable database transaction completes before the client receives the Request ID.

