

HLRMS Database Landscape

Logical Data Ownership & Cross-Database References

NOTES

- Each application domain owns and manages its database boundary.
- No cross-database foreign keys are created.
- Relationships between databases are logical references only.
- Auth Service is the identity source for users across the system.
- Request Service uses user_id to identify who created the request.
- Transfer API uses user_id for wallet/profile ownership and request_id for traceability.